There's a scene in a classic 1950's TV show, The Jack Benny Program, in which a mugger points a gun at the title character.

"Your money or your life," the mugger says. Jack Benny is silent. "I said, your money or your life!" the mugger repeats.

Your Money or Your Life Brought about by a desire to pursue intentional living, Robin and Dominguez experimented with frugality and simple living and found it was possible to live on a fraction of the money spent by a typical household.

Furthermore, paid work could be avoided entirely with a modest nest egg providing the required income.
